

Concordia Employee Cell Phone Discounts

As an employee of Concordia University, you can receive discounts on products, services and accessories from various phone service providers for your personal wireless phone service.

AT&T offers Concordia employees a 15% discount off the primary line. Take your employee ID or a pay stub to an AT&T store to activate your discount. You can also activate it online at www.wireless.att.com/business/enrollment.

Sprint offers a 23% employee discount on select plans (not all plans). Sprint will use your Concordia email to verify that you're an employee. Employees can visit one of their retail store locations to view all equipment/promotional offers. To find the nearest Sprint retail store location, please visit www.sprint.com.

T-Mobile offers Concordia employees a $25 Advantage Reward Card to spend at T-Mobile when they buy a new device. Every line on the account qualifies for this reward. Employees also get an additional $25 Reward Card every time they purchase a new device for a new or existing line on the account. To receive the card, employees need to submit the Advantage Reward Card Form that comes with their device within 30 days of activation.

Verizon offers a 15% employee discount off monthly access fee on eligible plans. Verizon will use your Concordia email to verify that you're an employee.

PLEASE NOTE: You will want to confirm the discount amount and ask about any special conditions regarding the phone service prior to making your decision about a cell phone service provider or plan.

Links to the cell phone providers can be found on Concordia's HR Wiki page at <http://hr.cu-portland.edu/Employee+Benefits>.